MAUI NEWS.

New Year Ball and Shooting Match—Personal.

According to time honored custom, a delightful ball was given in the social hall at Spreckelsville on New Year's eve, which, if possible, surpassed all previous ones held at that popular place. The commodious hall was superbly decorated with flowers, plants, ferns, and garlands, making it look like a fairy-bowed, and the ladies—Mrs. D. Con-fer of Hana, Mrs. D. Noonan, Mrs. E. P. Hastings and Mrs. Jno. F. Bowler—who lent their deft fingers and decorative genius to the occasion deserve unlimited credit for their successful efforts.

Mr. H. Center had, with his usual liberality given carte blanche, and nothing was spared to make the affair a splendid success. The Ka-hului Railroad conveyed the good people of Wailuku, Kahului and Paia to the scene of festivity, and as many more came in carriages, brakes and on horse-back from more remote parts of the island, to trip the light fantastic and worship at the shrine of Terpsichore.

Mr. E. R. Biven, our genial friend Ned, you know, made himself im-mortal by his indefatigable and ex-cel-lent piano-playing, ably assisted by Mr. Peyser of Hana. An un-usu-ally large crowd was present. Spreckelsville has never seen such a large and brilliant assemblage of people at any of its social functions. Merriment and jollity held full sway from beginning to end, and old and young, lame and well, suc-cumbed to the seductive strains of waltzes, lancers and polkas, and ven-tured out on the well-polished floor, to dance out the old year and dance in the new. Where so many ladies were present it would be difficult to describe their different dresses; suf-fice it to say that they were all elegantly dressed in their most beau-tiful gowns and most winning smiles, with the glow of youth and beauty, and the sparkle of genuine pleasure for ornaments.

Dancing commenced at 8 p. m. and was kept up unremittingly until after 11, when delicious refresh-ments—coffee, sandwiches, cake and ice cream—were served by the ef-ficient steward, Mr. Brittain, and his able corps of assistants. After this pleasant interlude, dancing was again resumed and kept up with great zest for an hour or so, until the warning shriek of the loco-motive reminded the guests from Ka-hului and Wailuku that time was fleet-ing, and even this enjoyable affair must have an end; reluctantly enough did they stop and go home, to sleep away into the New Year, and in their dreams once more enjoy the events of the coming, the con-quest they had made, the whispered compliments and protestations of—who knows what!—and all agreed that the affair was an immense suc-cess.

The Union Rifle and Gun Club held a special medal shoot on New Year's day at their range near Ka-hului. Owing to the very strong southerly wind prevailing all day but poor scores were made; the fol-lowing named gentlemen winning the respective medals: Mr. L. M. Yellessen, 1st medal; Mr. H. H. Plesner, 2d medal; Mr. A. F. Hopke, 3d medal. After the official shoot a turkey-and-geese shoot was held at the same place, and the lucky rifle-men who bagged one or more turkeys returned to their homes with a broad grin on their faces and a savory New Year's dinner in pros-pect, while the turkeys and geese, "poor things," had a very sad day, in fact were not "in it."

Miss Kate Ritchie has been very critically ill since before the hol-idays, and her many friends are very glad to learn that she is now con-alescing, thanks to the scientific treatment of Dr. Herbert, and the tender, careful nursing of Mrs. Noo-nan and Mrs. Hastings, who both have voluntarily acted the part of the Samaritan, and carried out the beautiful spirit of Christmas and of sisterly love, which is the key-note of humanity and Christianity.

Queen Victoria will cease holding drawing-rooms. One result of the practice was a series of frantic and most unseasonably struggles to reach the throne-room early, and on several occasions the alterations at the bar-rier between eager, angry and excited dames were so loud and violent that the sounds of the conflict penetrated to the royal circle.

"In buying a cough medicine for children," says H. A. Walker, a prominent druggist of Ogden, Utah, "never be afraid to buy Chamber-lain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is always sure to follow. I particularly re-com-mend Chamberlain's because I have found it to be safe and reliable. It is intended especially for colds, croup and whooping cough." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Notice to the Public.

The Honest People of Honolulu:—

The Shirt Question is still in the minds of the public and I wish to make a standing statement in regard to the Luning-Johnson matter. On or about the 2d day of December a lot of old shirts was left in my office with instructions to repair them by one signed Luning. I did repair the shirts, and a few days later this man Luning, accompanied by his wife, called and brought another shirt to be repaired, and also asking to see the first lot of shirts. I show-ed them and they were both well pleased and said the job was well done, and told me that the China-man would call on Monday and take them to be re-laundried. This was on Saturday previous to Monday mentioned, and when I finished the last shirt I brought the bill to Luning at his office. He got excited but I did not care, and I simply told him I would like to collect money for my work. He used some very hot words and said I had a cheek to ask for my money then, and he said he would ruin me, but still I did not care. I told Luning in presence of a witness that he was welcome to call at my place of busi-ness, where I have a room enclosed, and he could try on the shirts there, but he would not do it. No doubt Mr. Luning thought he had dead easy game, but he was like the man that fell out of the balloon—he was simply not in it. I will say this, that in any case I make new shirts and if they do not give entire satis-faction I will alter them, make new shirts, or refund the money. Can any person do more? I will also keep in repair all shirts made by me for two years free of charge, for I am as quiet as a lamb.

The success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in effecting a speedy cure of colds, croup and whooping cough has brought it into great de-mand. Messrs. Pontius & Son, of Cameron, Ohio, say that it has gained a reputation second to none in that vicinity. Jas. M. Queen, of Johnston, W. Va., says it is the best he ever used. B. F. Jones, druggist, Winona, Miss., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly reliable, I have always warranted it and it never failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
